Story
- a four generation business -

1929

G. Walter Staempfli

Napolitan farmer founds a company specialized in processing and exporting Italian food products, exporting high quality tomato products to all 5 continents.

1991

Walter Staempfli

son of G. Walter Staempfli creates the brands La Italiana, Walgust and Safari, focusing on canned tomatoes and legumes.

2015

Maurizio Staempfli

son of Walter Staempfli, creates the Amiko brand to expand its product range to other staple foods.

2020

Francesca Staempfli

daughter of Maurizio Staempfli, comes with a new vision bringing the company closer to the consumer by creating innovations focused on consumer demand, focusing on organic products and clean label.

Our experience in Tomato Agrobusiness helped year by year in delivering the best of the Italian tomatoes around the world.

- Factories positions in the heart of the fields in Salerno and Naples increase the sustainability and the freshness of the products.
- We produce conventional and organic tomatoes.
- Our production team is committed to maintain the quality of the sensory attributes and nutrition label of the products.
- Our factories operate under high standards certifications.
